

The Park Group to Acquire SRS Access' Portfolio

David Holmes to Join Park Bermuda Limited as Vice President

Waltham, Mass. - July 18, 2006 Strategic Risk Solutions (SRS) announced today that SRS Access, its wholesale brokerage subsidiary has reached an agreement with The Park Group to service the placements for all of SRS Access' clients and handle all renewal negotiations and new placement opportunities. As part of the agreement, David Holmes will be joining Park Bermuda Limited as a Vice President of Casualty.

"After exploring the various options and exit strategies, we concluded this arrangement with The Park Group is the best solution for SRS Access's clients and brokerage partners", said Brady Young President of SRS Access. He added, "I have known Paul Scope and several members of his senior team for many years and am very impressed with the depth of expertise and experience they bring to the Bermuda market. I am very confident it will be a good arrangement for both our clients and David, and in addition, will allow myself and others at SRS to totally focus on our core business of captive management and consulting."

Paul Scope, CEO and Chairman of The Park Group added "We are pleased to be selected to assume SRS Access' portfolio and to have David Holmes join the Park organization. As the leading independent Bermuda broker, we are a good fit for SRS Access' clients and partners."
