

Derick White to Join Strategic Risk Solutions

Burlington, VT - November 26, 2007. Strategic Risk Solutions (SRS), a provider of captive management and consulting services announced today that Derick White will be joining the company effective February 1, 2008. Mr. White is currently Director of Captive Insurance for the Vermont Department of Banking, Insurance, Securities & Health Care Administration.

“Derick White has been a cornerstone of the Vermont captive insurance industry for many years and brings a wealth of experience and knowledge on all types of captives to our firm. We are extremely pleased that he has decided to join SRS” said Brady Young, President and CEO of SRS. “Derick’s skill set and personality is a great fit for SRS and he will be an invaluable asset as we continue our quest to solidify SRS as the leading independent captive manager across all US and offshore domiciles”, added Young.

At SRS, Mr. White will be President of the company’s Vermont operations. He will be responsible for the management and development of SRS’s captive management business in the State. He will also oversee SRS’ activities in other eastern US domiciles including South Carolina, Washington DC and Kentucky.

“After 15 years working with the Vermont Department, I am excited about taking on this opportunity in the private sector”, said Mr. White. “As a regulator, I have worked with SRS for a number of years and have been impressed with their expertise and professionalism. This role allows me to continue to be active in the Vermont captive community while expanding my activities with captives.”

Derick White has served the captive division of the Vermont Department of Banking, Insurance, Securities & Health Care Administration since 1992 first as Chief Examiner, then Acting Deputy Commissioner and finally as Director of Captive Insurance. Prior to joining the Department, Mr. White worked with a CPA firm specializing in the insurance field. He is past President of the Society of Financial Examiners, an international organization training and certifying insurance and financial institution examiners. He has also served on the Advisory Board of the Vermont Insurance Institute and on many NAIC committees and working groups and is a frequent speaker in the captive insurance industry. Mr. White received his BA in Economics from the University of Vermont and is a Certified Public Accountant and a Certified Financial Examiner.
