What is a Captive?

A captive insurance company is an insurance company owned and controlled by its insureds with primary role to insure the risk exposure of its owner and affiliates.

What is a Rent-A-Captive?

Rather than going through the process of establishing a traditional captive and investing large amounts of capital, a rent-a-captive facility is owned by experienced insurance professionals and the insured 'rents' this unaffiliated facility. Often referred to as a 'condo captive', rent-a-captive programs are typically simpler to establish and less expensive to operate.

Green Mountain is an Incorporated Cell Captive (ICC), What is the Difference?

Cell Companies are a legally separate form of rent-a-captive meant to provide additional security and autonomy for clients interested in the rent-a-captive concept. Each incorporated protected cell (ICC) is formed as a corporation or other legal entity and has a legal identity independent from that of its parent as well as the Green Mountain captive facility. ICCs provide greater control and more certainty to their participants.

Pricing and Fees

An annual rental fee is charged to the cell for using Green Mountain to finance the risk. Professional services such as auditing are passed through to each cell on a reduced cost basis. A captive management agreement is presented to the cell for accounting, reporting and management services. The Owner(s) of the cell is responsible for taxes resulting from operations of the cell.
