

SRS Appoints Peter Child as Chief Executive Officer of SRS Europe

Concord, MA, January 17th, 2022 – Strategic Risk Solutions (“SRS”; “the Company”), the world’s largest independent insurance company manager, today announced that Peter Child has been appointed as Chief Executive Officer of SRS Europe. Child will also retain his current role of SRS Guernsey Managing Director.

Child began his new role as the CEO of SRS Europe on January 1, 2022. In this role, Child is assuming responsibility for continuing to grow SRS’s European presence in Luxembourg, Dublin, Malta, Switzerland, Guernsey, Sweden, and the Netherlands, as well as pushing into new territories.

“SRS’s growth has continued to grow globally with the most significant expansion in Europe in recent years. As such and given our 5-year growth plan in Europe, it makes sense to appoint a strong leader in the region to work closely with our European Executive Team and staff to manage the next phase of our expansion” according to Brady Young, SRS Group CEO and Chairman of SRS Europe.

“I’m excited to continue working with our European executives and to bring the independence and unparalleled expertise of SRS in captive insurance and alternative risk financing to clients across Europe.” added Child.

Child joined SRS in 2021 and will continue to oversee the firm’s management services to Guernsey clients. He has over 20 years’ experience in the European captive and insurance company management industry. He has worked with a wide range of captive clients from various industries, commercial insurers and reinsurers, as well as Insurance Linked Security (ILS) vehicles.
