

SRS Leads 2021 Captive Review Power 50

Concord, MA, March 4, 2022 – Strategic Risk Solutions (“SRS”; “the Company”), the world’s largest independent insurance company manager, today congratulates SRS CEO and Chairman Brady Young and SRS Europe CEO Peter Child on their inclusion to the Power 50 list from Captive Review.

The Power 50 list honors the most influential people in the captive insurance industry and this year Young placed first on the list for the second time in a row. Young is recognized as extremely active in the industry and has expanded SRS even more over the past year.

“I am surrounded by a team of fantastic partners and colleagues who are on the front line everyday delivering great service to our clients, said Young. “This is a tribute to them!”

Recently promoted to CEO of SRS Europe, Peter Child also made the list at number 16. With more than 20 years in the European Captive and insurance company management industry, Child and the SRS team are making huge strides in Europe.

“I’m honoured to be recognised for doing a job that I love, most especially at a company as forward thinking, inclusive, and collegiate as SRS,” said Child. “In a few short months I’ve seen that our truly differentiated management-owned model is hugely attractive to those looking to establish insurance vehicles throughout Europe. It’s great to be playing a small role in the disruption of delivery of value to those looking to optimise both risk financing and underwriting profit.”

The Captive Review Power 50 is an annual list of the 50 most influential captive insurance professionals from the last year, representing the best of the best of the captive industry. The Power 50 honors captive professionals that excelled in 2021, who are champions of the captive insurance industry, dedicated professionals who are collegiate, innovative, committed, visible, and shown excellence over the past year.
