Atlas Program

About the Program

Atlas Health is for “captive curious” middle-market employers seeking stability and predictability in their self-funded health plans. Managing healthcare costs and specialty drugs independently can be challenging. Atlas offers a community-based model that spreads risk and leverages cost containment strategies through the collective purchasing power of a virtual captive.

Program Highlights

- Community-based Risk Sharing
Employers join a network of like-minded businesses to share best practices and manage costs collectively.

- Financial Stability
Atlas ensures reliable excess stop loss protection at renewal and throughout the year by its sharing of claims experience.

Atlas Health: Supporting Self-Funded Health Plans

Atlas Health transforms self-funding into a collaborative effort, making healthcare costs more predictable and manageable.
