

Governance, Regulatory, & Compliance

Understanding captive insurance company operations, regulatory, and compliance risk is crucial to achieving your risk management goals and to ensure greater visibility within your parent organization(s). Balancing performance goals, risk management, and abiding by applicable rules and regulations can be challenging. New or changing regulations, management and board changes, or uncertainty in the marketplace can result in governance implications.

How SRS GRC Consulting Assists With Your Captive Management

Strengthening oversight, reducing regulatory risk and enhancing operational discipline comes from having a solid Governance, Regulatory, and Compliance (GRC) structure. A holistic structure can provide a managed, auditable governance function, regulator-ready documentation, controls and reporting, plus alignment of board, management, and operational responsibilities.

Strategic Risk Solutions (SRS) can assist with your evolving needs to reinforce your governance, regulatory compliance, and operational resilience. As a partner in your success, SRS wants you to have confidence in your governance structure, to ensure understanding of the obligations and importance of a culture of compliance and governance integrity for the long-term success of your captive insurance company.
